Personalised Bottles of Champagne

London

Eliane Champagne's business activities focus on the sale of personalised bottles of champagne.

It is also involved in the recycling of corks to create a range of useful items. The founder of the business Eliane Yebkal summarises, "I took the decision to enter the recycling market when I decided to diversify to expand the sales of my business. This new activity is an oxymoron idea that links alcohol with the creation of useful items for society".

The company was founded in 2014, and has since grown its reputation through research and development, cost reduction and market analysis. By linking to several networks it has formed key partnerships and expanded its business to business (B2B) sales.

Previously based in Warwickshire, Eliane Champagne is now based in London.
